Students will be assessed: 25% written assignments 15% in-class performance 60% final exam Evaluation baseline

Written assignments will be assessed on ability to achieve the set objective of the written assignment including accuracy of vocabulary and grammar.

Class performance will be assessed on class participation, with particular focus on level of understanding and interest shown on specific points as well as contributions to class discussions.

The final exam will test students' knowledge of the terminology and concepts covered during the course.

Notice (include info. on related class)

Exchange students can attend this course.

Participating in the course will help prepare students wanting to take the TOLES legal English certification exam. Students intending to take this exam can receive extra support and training outside the scheduled classes.

Review and preparation

Students will be required to do significant amounts of reading and preparation work outside the classroom, with classroom time used primarily for review and discussion activities.

After lectures, students will be required to do review work and written assignments.

Kobe University requires 45 hours of study from students to award one credit, including both in-class instructions as well as study outside classes.

Students are required to prepare for each class and complete the review after each class, depending on the respective class goals.

Office hour · Contact information

Contact can be made by email to: keith@people.kobe-u.ac.jp There will also be time to ask questions at the beginning or end of classes.

Message for student

An upper-intermediate level of general English ability is required to complete this course successfully. If a student is unsure about her/his ability, it is recommended that s/he attends the first class and discusses with the course instructor at the end.

Students must bring their laptop to every class.

Improvemenets in Teaching

Text

Students will need to buy their own copy of the textbook but it will not be necessary to have the textbook for the first class at which the purchasing procedure will be explained. Other materials, including reading texts and worksheets, will be distributed on BEEF.
