

Kobe Seminar on International Investment Law 2017

Struggle with the Public Aspect of ISDS: Controversy and Future Model

27 January 2017

Venue: Room 104, Second Law Building, Kobe University

15:30-16:30 Dai Tamada (Professor, Kobe University)
“Results of the Tobacco Plain Packaging Cases in ISDS: End of Controversy?”

16:30-17:30 Anna de Luca (Professor, Bocconi University, Italy and Visiting Scholar at Nagoya University)
“The Investment Court System in the new generation of EU agreements:
advantages and drawbacks”

Dr. Avv. Anna De Luca

is an international economic law scholar and practitioner specialized in international investment law & arbitration and European external economic relations. She holds a PhD in International Law from the University of Milan and regularly lectures on international investment law, European external relations, and trade law at Bocconi. Anna has been practicing in the field of investment arbitration since 2007 and is a member of the list of conciliators at ICSID. She acts as advisor for the Italian Ministry of Economic Development (MISE) in respect of European investment treaty-making issues, and acts as Liason Office for the AIA (Associazione Italiana per l'Arbitrato) within the 2015 Collaboration Agreement between the AIA and MISE on investment protection and European investment policy. She has authored many articles and works on International Investment Law, International Arbitration, and European external economic relations published in international law journals and volumes.

Organised by Kobe University, Graduate School of Law
Contact: Professor Dai Tamada (tamada@port.kobe-u.ac.jp)