

Course title	Presentation Workshop 1
Instructor	Cindy Cheong	Lecture category	Credit(s)
		2nd semester	1

Theme and Objectives

Using Malaysia's legal corporate practice as its base the aim of the course will be to equip students who wish to enter into corporate legal practice with the basic knowledge of the types of transactions that takes place in the business world including the attributes required of a good business lawyer. Since Malaysia is also known as a pot of melting cultures; the class will also touch on Malaysia's business and local culture. Students who are considering an internship in Malaysia will find this class beneficial for their future reference.

Description and Schedule

There will be 8 lectures held over a period of 2 days and will cover the following topics: 1. Basic Malaysian Legal System; 2. Type of matters generally involved in legal corporate practice; and 3. Attributes of a good business lawyer

Evaluation

Each student should attend all classes with enough preparation by reading the provided materials, if any. (90%)
At the end of the course, all the students are requested to hand in a short report of about 500 words. (10%)

Information Regarding Preparation, Review and Related Subjects

Students may be required to do some reading before the class, the reading materials, if any, will be made available to the students prior to the classes.

Office Hour and Contact Information

Contact details will be announced during lectures.

Message

Improvements in Teaching

Textbook

Information will be given about reading materials, if any, for those students who are interested in further reading.

Reference Materials

Classroom Language

The lectures will be conducted entirely in English

Keywords

Malaysia Legal Corporate Practice