

Course title	Space Law and Policy with Simulated Negotiations
Instructor	TAKAYA Yuri	Lecture category	Credit(s)
		1st semester	2

Theme and Objectives

The objective of the course is to provide students with an overview of international space law and policy as well as a skill to debate critical issues related to outer space activities in English.

Description and Schedule

First part (40 mins) provides basic knowledge of space law and policy, and the second part (50 mins) follows with simulated negotiations over critical issues in outer space activities.

1. Introduction to Space Law and Policy (with guidance on research)
2. National Space Law and Policy of US
3. National Space Law and Policy of Russia
4. National Space Law and Policy of Japan
5. National Space Law and Policy of Canada
6. National Space Law and Policy of EU: ESA and EU
7. National Space Law and Policy of EU: France
8. National Space Law and Policy of EU: UK
9. National Space Law and Policy of EU: Germany
10. National Space Law and Policy of China
11. National Space Law and Policy of South Korea
12. National Space Law and Policy of India
13. International Organization: ITU
14. International Organization: ICAO

Evaluation

Presentation, debates during the course and written examination

Information Regarding Preparation, Review and Related Subjects

Read the assigned materials and prepare the proposed questions before each lecture.

Office Hour and Contact Information

The time and date of the office hour is announced at the beginning of the course

Message

This course provides an opportunity to improve skills to make a presentation in international scene and to negotiate within a limited time applicable to business.

Improvements in Teaching

Textbook

Lecture Materials will be provided at the beginning of the course.

Reference Materials

Classroom Language

English

Keywords

International Law; International Space Law; Space Business; Military Uses of Outer Space