授業のテーマ

This seminar provides an overview of the work of facilitators of international dispute resolution in Asia. The operations and services of the participating arbitral institutions and commercial court will be considered with special attention paid to areas of specialization, innovations, and trends.

授業の到達目標

Participating students will gain insight into the role of international commercial courts and arbitral institutions. They will also become more familiar with arbitration procedures and the functioning of an international commercial court.

授業の概要と計画

Leaders from the various institutions will come to Kobe to give lectures. Participating speakers will comprise managers and directors from leading international arbitration institutions including the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission ("CIETAC"), the Hong Kong International Arbitration Center ("HKIAC"), the International Chamber of Commerce ("ICC"), the Japan Commercial Arbitration Association ("JCAA"), the Kuala Lumpur Regional Centre for Arbitration ("KLRC"), and the Singapore International Arbitration Centre ("SIAC") as well as the Singapore International Commercial Court ("SICC").

In the fall term of 2016, the seminar will take place on 5-6 November.

成績評価方法

The students will be assessed as follows:
Seminar attendance and participation - 70%
Paper - 30%

学生へのメッセージ

Asian arbitration institutions are responsible for many recent innovations in international arbitration. Likewise, the Singapore International Commercial Court is an inspired initiative to diversify dispute-resolution choices to business enterprises in international commerce. This seminar presents a unique opportunity to hear directly from leaders of the institutions and court at a single event. Students may also consider using the occasion to discuss internships and jobs with the presenters.
