

Course title	International Arbitration 2
Teacher(s)	James Claxton			開講区分	単位数
				1st semester	2.0
Numbering Code		Day・Period	Other	Timetable Slot Code	1J352

Lesson topic

This course introduces students to international investment law and investor-state dispute resolution.

Lesson target

By the end of the course, students should have a good understanding of the subjects listed in the next section as well as the daily work of lawyers practicing in this area.

Syllabus and plan

The following subjects are normally covered in class discussions:

- Investors and investments
- The sources of international investment law
- Substantive protections in international investment instruments
- The resolution of international investment disputes
- Criticisms of the present system for resolving disputes
- The future of international investment law and dispute resolution

Evaluation method

Class participation	50%
Class exercises	25%
Final examination	25%

Evaluation baseline

With the method stated above, grades will be determined in accordance with the degrees of achievement of the objectives.

Notice (include info. on related class)

Review and preparation

The details will be announced at the first session.

Office hour・Contact information

Contact details and office hours will be announced at the first session.

Message for student

This course develops through class discussions of assigned readings and ends with a moot that gives students the opportunity to apply what they have learned.

Improvements in Teaching

Text

Reading materials will be made available to students in electronic format. Students may wish to purchase the following textbook.

Principles of International Investment Law / Rudolf Dolzer, Christoph Schreuer : Oxford University Press ,2012 , ISBN:

Reference Material

Classroom Language

English

All lectures and exercises will be conducted in English.

Keywords

“international arbitration” “international commercial arbitration” “investment arbitration” “international investment arbitration” “investment law” “international investment law” “investor-state dispute settlement”